9. IMPACT & MONITORING

Measuring Real Change

At Dariva.co, we believe that every programme should create measurable impact.

We monitor and evaluate our work to ensure participants gain practical skills that improve their wellbeing and strengthen their communities. Our approach aligns with good monitoring and evaluation (M&E) practice by tracking participation, learning outcomes, behaviour change and longer-term community impact.

What We Measure

- People trained
- Programme completion rates
- Knowledge gained
- Behaviour change
- Workplace wellbeing improvements
- Community engagement
- Leadership growth
- Referral outcomes
- Participant satisfaction
- Community impact indicators

Why Monitoring & Evaluation Matters

By collecting feedback and measuring results, we continuously improve our programmes, demonstrate accountability to partners and funders, and ensure our training creates sustainable change for individuals, organisations and communities.
